This compound has been but a short time before the public, and has already grown into great favor and repute, in nearly every intence, where it has been tried. There are cases so chronic and deep-sented as to baffle all human remedies, and the inventor of this compound does not claim for its even such is consequently deep sented as to baffle all human remedies, and the inventor of this compound does not claim for its even such is consequently deep sented as to baffle all human remedies, and the inventor of this compound does not claim for its even such is consequently deep sented as to baffle all human remedies, and the inventor of this all human remedies, and the inventor of this compound does not claim for it any such infaltibility, as to cure every disease under the sun. Such assertions, of any human remedy, bear their own construction, even to the most simple-minded; but when pain can be cured
and relieved by liniments and embrocations,
this preparation will do it.

The Pain Doctor is not made up of roots
and ladien remedies but is, "the any compound."

or Indian remedies but is a "happy compound" of standard medicines, and, therefore, can be no of standard medicines, and, therefore, can be no humbig. The testimony of those who have given it a fair trial, will substantiate all its claims. It will keep any length of time, is easily applied, not at all disagreeable to the smell, and is sold at such a price as to be with in the reach of all.

It should be kept in every family. It is worth double the price, to cure the ailments of children.

Give it a fair trial, and you will always keep.

Give it a fair trial, and you will always keep it on hand, among the family medicines.

DIRECTIONS.

Always shake well before using. As a general rule, apply freely the liniment with the palm of the hand, or a piece of cloth, rubbing briskly, until relief is afforded.

In cases of violent pain, the liniment may be warmed, and after rubbing freely, lay on a piece of finnel saturated with the compound.

For Sore Throat or Diptheria, apply a hand-age saturated with the Pain Doctor. Should the burning be too severe as in the case of children, a little sweet oil may be added. For Corns or Bunious, pare gently with a sharp knife, and rub well morning and evening. For Pains in the Bowels, rub freely the Ab

For Toothache, apply into or next to the tooth, a piece of cotton saturated with the compound, and rob the part of the face oppo-
